

ASAMOAH, SPIRES, & MAALO BECOME LATEST SIGNINGS

April 28, 2021

Invictus FC have signed Caleb Asamoah, Joe Spires, and Abdikarim Maalo for the upcoming 2021 UPSL season.

All three players will be looking to make an immediate impact, with each one of them adding attacking options.

Asamoah, had a very successful path as a youngster, which led him to playing college soccer at SUNY Oswego. While playing at Oswego, Asamoah was selected First Team All-Conference and led the team in goals for three consecutive seasons.

Spires, who grew up in Cazenovia, NY, is another local talent who spent years in the Invictus FC youth curriculum and system, where he began as an 8 year old. As a youngster, Spires, and his youth club team, won the State Cup on multiple occasions, and he was also named Player of the Year at Cazenovia High School - being named to the All-Central New York First Team back to back seasons. Spires currently plays Division I NCAA soccer at Manhattan College.

Maalo, who graduated from Nottingham High School, is now a Senior at Keuka College, after transferring from nearby Onondaga Community College. His performances on the field have led him to a number of accolades during his college playing career, including All-American honors and being named on the All Mid-State Athletic Conference First Team.

Invictus FC Head Coach, Dan Kincaid is excited about the attacking options Asamoah, Spires, and Maalo bring to the team:

"All three players provide us with many attacking options, and have a high level of skill and creativity. Importantly, their attitudes during training and our preparation for the season has been first class. They are going to be very important to the team."

Invictus FC begin their UPSL campaign on Sunday, May 2nd. Please visit invictusfc.com for all UPSL and Youth Soccer information.
